PUT-IN-BAY, OHIO. Scene of Commodore Perry's victory 1813. A beautiful monument rising 252 feet in the air has been erected on this site. The Inter-Lake Regatta is held here annually and draws thousands of people. Small mouthed bass and other fish are in abundance around its rocky shores. Has excellent bathing beach and hotels, and various amusements. Reached by boat daily from Detroit, Sandusky, and Auto Ferry from Catawba Island.
